“Being sharp” is popular in DDATT towns

DEXTER - Over 40 local owners of dull knives, scissors, hoes, synthesizers, drill bits and other hand tools converged in the Abbott Memorial Library's shared Saturday morning to base knowledge, experience, theory and techniques for sharpening. This workshop, co-sponsored by Dexter Dover Area Towns in Transition (DDATT) and the Library, was an experiment in skills-sharing, drawing people in skills-sharing, far away as Skowhegan and Bangor.

Most participants came with questions about how to begin getting their tools back into sharp condition. In the spirit of sharing, a few of the more knowledgeable honers set up their tools on tables placed around the basement, allowing seekers ample opportunity to see different approaches to the same end: how to put an edge onto a cutting device.

Sandpaper on glass, water stones, oil stones, handpowered grinding wheel, files of all kinds, honing strops, and peening jigs were among the items demonstrated to and then used by the curious and hopeful. One of the common admissions was a fear of making a dull implement worse by not knowing how to use a sharpening tool correctly. The antidote for this fear, explained the experienced in their various ways, has three parts: first, to understand what “sharp” means for any particular tool, that is, what does a sharp edge look like; second, which sharpening tool can do the proper job; third (and most important), the coverage to jump in and keep trying.

SHARON L. WEEKS

ST. ALBANS - Sharon Weeks, 62, went home to be with her Lord January 16, 2015 after fighting a long battle. She was born February 20, 1952 in East Corinth, a daughter of Raymond and Lorraine (Lambert) Elliott. Sharon graduated from Central High School, Class of 1970 as valedictorian of her class. She worked for Metropolitan Life in Bangor and transferred to Waterville where she became office manager. When the Waterville office closed she was asked to return to Bangor. After 25 years of service she took early retirement in order to care for her mother. After her mother passed she worked as bookkeeper for the Town of St. Albans. Sharon married Earle Osborne Weeks on May 5th, 1973. They had a wonderful life together for 41 years. They especially enjoyed retirement cruising to Hawaii, Alaska, the Panama Canal and many locales in the Caribbean. They wintered in Florida and traveled across the United States twice. These are cherished memories. One of her greatest joys was spending time with her children and grandchildren.

She was a loving mother and grandmother. Wonderful times were shared playing tennis, biking, hiking, camping and ice skating. She enjoyed playing cards with her friends and family. She spent much of her free time walking miles through the woods with her golden retrievers seeking out new adventures. Sharon was baptized into the Methodist church at age 9 and was always a faithful servant. She was a strong Christian woman who led her family by example. She will be remembered as a kind, caring person with a big smile for everyone no matter what struggles she faced in life. She was a member of Grace-Linn United Methodist Church in Hartland, the United Methodist Women, a member of the Hartland-St. Albans Lions Club, and was a past member of the Oakland Sunshine Club. In addition to her husband, she is survived by 2 daughters, Angie Weeks-Knapp of Harmony, Tammy Christianson of Sidney, and a son in law she considered to be her son, Nathan Christianson, 2 brothers Philip Elliott and wife Annabel of Cape Coral, Florida, Richard Elliott and wife skills is a major part of DDATT's mission. DDATT is grateful for volunteers Tom Goldsmith of Dexter, Robert Elliot of Dover Foxcroft, Norris Davis from Harmony, Stephanie Reiser from St Albans, Gerry Amelotte of Troy, and Richard Tessier of Skowhegan who energetically and thoughtfully demonstrated techniques and lifetimes of hand tool experience with the group.

"I am so pleased with this event!" said Librarian Liz Breaugh. "We had no idea there would be so much interest, especially in the middle of winter." Dexter's Pam Crooker, attending a DDATT workshop for the first time and "learning a lot," expressed hope for more such events.

Local Businesses In the News

THREE DOVER-FOXCROFT BUSINESSES were recently purchased by Daniel Moore (left) from Vicki and Carl Brackett.

Businesses under new ownership
DOVER-FOXCROFT - AMB Signs, Foxcroft Printers and Foxcroft Laundromat have a new owner. The new owner is Daniel Moore of Dover-Foxcroft. He purchased the 3 businesses from previous owners, Carl & Vicki Brackett. The businesses are located across the street from Will's Shop & Save at 25 North Street.

Dan was born and raised in Dover-Foxcroft and is a graduate of Foxcroft Academy. After high school, Dan spent 8 years in the military, and has since been working as a Consultant for the Government.

The 3 businesses will operate as they have in the past without interruption. Quiltingmania will continue to be operated by the Bracketts at its current location, 25 North Street. Contact them at 564-3533 or quiltingmaniausa@gmail.com. The Bracketts will be around for the next few months for training and a smooth transition from one owner to the next. Pan Walton will be staying as well.

AMB Signs is a full-service sign business offering: car & truck lettering, business signs, window lettering, curved signs, gold leaf signs, plaques, individual vinyl lettering and more. Foxcroft Printers offers: photocopying, both black and white and color, flyers, brochures, business cards, two & three part NCR business invoices, design work and more. Foxcroft Laundry is a clean, bright, well-kept self-service laundromat.

Dan invites everyone to stop in to see what he offers and would like to thank everyone for their future support.

Carl and Vicki would also like to thank the community for their past support. Because of the support they received, these businesses have succeeded.
