Candidate's Night, May 29

GREENVILLE - Following the practice from a similar event two years ago, the Moosehead Lake Kiwanis Club and Key Club has organized a candidate's night to hear from each of the candidates for school committee and Board of Selectmen for the contests seats in this year's municipal election on May 29.

According to a Kiwanis spokesperson, "The event will be held in the Municipal Building Meeting Hall and will serve as an opportunity for each of the candidates to introduce themselves to the public, to answer a common series of questions from the Kiwanis' moderator Karin Tilborg of the Forest Society of Maine and member of the Kiwanis Club."

"After each candidate is allowed brief opening candidate statements, the moderator will ask several questions pertinent to either school or municipal issues and allow each candidate to respond. The spokesperson added, "If time allows, questions will be solicited from the audience. The format will follow the candidate's night of two years ago and additional information will be provided in a week directly from the Kiwanis."

RSVP to Beth Young at 695-2421 or at Bethany@GreenvilleME.com.

"...a good man that does his best for this constituent."

To the Editor:

All we want in this life is a chance. For those of us not born with a silver spoon in our mouths, the last thing we want is our own government to force us down when we want to push ourselves up and make a difference in this world.

I had to leave Maine because Maine does not offer the programs for my profession. Luckily, I studied on one of the country's top ten programs for my profession. When I finished graduate school and training for my profession, I tried to come back and start my own business with the education and experience. The state turned me down and frankly said I didn't "qualify." I got discouraged, then I picked up the phone and called them, Senator Paul Davis of Sangerville. He listened to what I had to say and couldn't believe it when I told him the circumstances. He said immediately he would help. He could have accepted the status quo and told me there was nothing to be done as this is the way it is. He did not. He could have told me to go somewhere else and talk to someone else. He did not. What he did do was stand up and go to bat for me. He convinced his fellow legislators, republican and democrat, that the law preventing my working here was wrong and needed to be changed. He worked hard, and he met with, this I know, many obstacles within his own state government. Finally, the law was changed and now I am a successful Maine son able to return to his home-state and live and work, and earn a living and help other fellow Mainers. It easily could have turned out differently if it were not for the efforts of Paul Davis for me and people like me. He is a good man that does his best for this constituent. I am living proof. I hope we can see him again as our State Senator.

Christopher Clukey
Dover-Foxcroft

"...a good choice..."

To the Editor,

I have had the pleasure of working with Rep. Paul Davis in Augusta and have seen his hard effective work on behalf of his constituents. Paul and I have worked together for years on issues impacting Maine's wildlife.

For example, last year, Paul worked diligently with his colleagues on the Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Committee to modify a proposal to restrict the use of lead fishing tackle to benefits loons. With his help, the Committee crafted legislation that is a win-win for loons and anglers and helps keep lead out of our waters. LD 730, as amended, reduces the risk of lead poisoning for loons, gives the fishing tackle industry time to develop additional lead-free jig and sinker alternatives and the public has time to adapt and get the lead out of their tackle boxes.

Once the Legislature passed the bill, Paul was critical to making it become law. He successfully persuaded the Governor to allow it to become law. Paul fought hard because he knows his constituents care about keeping lead out of the water for people and for wildlife.

I have seen Paul in action in Augusta and I know how effective he is representing his constituents. Voters in Senate District 4 would be making a good choice in voting for Paul Davis. Thank you for your consideration.

"...the rest of the story."

To the Editor:

I would like to explain the complete details regarding the race for Senate District 4 in the June Republican Primary between Rep. Paul Davis and Sen. Doug Thomas; or as Paul Harvey used to say "and now the rest of the story".

Last summer Doug Thomas expressed to myself and others at a gathering that he would not be a Candidate for this senate seat and in fact had asked Rep. Paul Davis to run for the seat, as he, Doug Thomas needed to spend more time on his fire wood business and make a living. Rep. Davis announced to family, friends and other republicans that he would be running for the Senate Seat in District 4 and he committed himself to the race.

Later this past fall Doug Thomas informed Paul Davis that he had changed his mind and would be running for this Senate Seat; and this is why we have a primary race between two Republican Candidates, Senator Thomas has also flip-flopped and changed his mind on the East-West Highway issue, depending which day of the week it is or to whom he is speaking.

My family and I will be voting for Paul Davis in the District 4 Senate Primary on June 10.

Gail E. Lynch
Sebec

"...support this talented and worthy public servant."

Davis for Senate
To the Editor:

During my time on the battlefields, logging in western Maine, and serving in Augusta, I have met many people of character and patriotism, but few compare to Paul Davis. Paul is a thoughtful, even-tempered gentleman, who is the same person in the halls of the capital making laws as he is in the sap house making syrup. In a world when too many politicians campaign for office with one face and maintain a different one when elected, Paul is steadfast and grounded. (This could be because of his faith, but those who know his lovely wife, Patty, would give her the credit.)

Occupying the seat next to Paul in the legislature, I have been witness to his legislative successes. He stood up to the powerful pharmaceutical industry and fought to allow Mainers to buy less expensive prescription drugs across the border. Without Paul's support it likely wouldn't have passed or avoided a veto. He was instrumental in an ethics reform forbidding legislators from becoming lobbyists for one year after leaving office. As a veteran himself, Paul came through with support for veterans' causes at every turn. He can also be counted on to fight against expanding both the size and power of government.

The people Paul represents have been blessed to have a lawmaker with his rare ability to influence the outcome of legislation and still remain the same humble guy with the same values as when he arrived in Augusta. The people of Senate District #4 have the opportunity to elect Paul Davis, but all Mainers will benefit. I urge you to support this talented and worthy public servant.

Rep. Jarrod Crockett
Bethel

Volunteers needed for tree work

SANGERVILLE - Volunteers are needed at the Sangerville Bean Hill Community Forest Wood Lot to work on the tree plantings that were started in May 2013.

"The little trees wintered pretty well but need some "tender loving care" to help them get ready to start their second year in the wood lot," said a spokesperson. "Volunteers are urged to come out on May 28 at 5:30 PM to help up-right the protective nets that fell over due to the wind, snow & ice."

"Also, some trees planted last year didn't get protectors because we ran out of time last Spring." The spokesperson added, "We need to do a little bit of clearing around the small trees, too, so that they can compete with (grow faster than) the surrounding vegetation."

"When he is asked for help, he responds immediately..."

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter to endorse Paul Davis for the District #4 Senate Seat. I worked with Paul for six years in the Maine State Legislature. We passed several bills together including the bill that lowered the state valuation for Dexter when Dexter Shoe was sold. That bill gave our school district several thousand dollars and reduced the town's financial obligation to the county.

I don't know of any other legislator who has volunteered more of his time to the community. He has served as auctioneer for many charitable fund raisers and has served many times as moderator for town meetings.

Constituent work is Paul's major objective. When he is asked for help, he responds immediately with a kind, caring demeanor and will do his very best to help anyone regardless of their party or position.

Paul is a devoted family man. He is dedicated to his wife, children and grandchildren. He always sets the best example. Please vote for Paul as our Republican candidate for Senate District #4 on June 10th.

GOVERNOR LePAGE VISITS A.E. ROBINSON IN CORINNA - Governor Paul LePage was in Corinna recently to meet with local businesses and town officials. While there, the Governor visited the location of a new Convenience Store and Propane storage location being planned by A.E. Robinson Oil Company. The store will replace the current outlet just across the street, and employ an additional six to ten people once it's in full operation. Additional bulk propane storage is needed in the area because there has been a shortage during winter months the last few years. Pictured left to right are Gov. LePage, Jim Robinson of A.E. Robinson Oil Co. and Sen. Doug Thomas.

SVH announces new board members

PITTSFIELD - Sebastiook Valley Health (SVH) has welcomed two past SVH employees to its current board of trustees, Linda Woolley, who joined the board in November 2013, served as director of SVH Care at Home/Sebastiook Valley HomeCare from 2002 to 2006, and Sharon Foster, RN, who is slated to begin this May, was a community health educator from 1998 until 2001.

"I am very happy to welcome Linda and Sharon to the SVH Board of Trustees," stated Terri Vieira, SVH CEO and senior vice president of EMHS. "Sebastiook Valley Health is proud to be led by community volunteers, and we value the time and commitment our trustees offer our organization on behalf of all the people in our region."

A healthcare leader since 1990, Linda Woolley recently retired from Eastern Maine HomeCare in 2013, where she served as chief operating officer for the EMHS home health agency. Under Ms. Woolley's leadership, Eastern Maine HomeCare (which originated at SVH as Care at Home and later Sebastiook Valley HomeCare) provided home health services as River Valley HomeCare and Inland HomeCare. During her tenure, Ms. Woolley was responsible for agency and contract administration, quality assurance and performance improvement, central intake, community outreach, customer service, and facilities management.

MAINE: The big lake is finally free of ice after what seemed like a very long and cold winter. The official ice out date was May 10 this year which is actually not far from the long-term average. We had a very busy winter and are now ready to slide into the summer field season here at the Fisheries Division. Many people ask us what we do in the winter and off-seasons. Of course, on the weekends in the winter we are collecting data from anglers on various lakes in the Moosehead Lake Region, and during the week we are compiling and analyzing data from the previous year. Fisheries change with time and we do our best to stay on top of it. We are constantly researching, collecting and evaluating data, and reviewing management strategies on our waters. We are fortunate here in the Moosehead Lake Region because we have a long history of consistent data collection which helps us to analyze changes in trends and look for methods to protect our gamefish populations while improving the fishing.

As an example, we have been working with Brookfield, the company that operates the dam on behalf of Kennebec Water Power Company, to improve the water management on Moosehead Lake. A few years ago we conducted some pretty intensive evaluations of our lake trout population. We re-confirmed that our lake trout were still spawning at depths greater than 4 1/2 feet in the fall in rocky, wind-swept shoals. However, the actual dates of spawning are about a week to two weeks later than much of the historical data suggests. Lake trout are spawning near the end of October instead of mid-October. Brookfield is currently required by license to have the lake drawn down by Oct 10th each year to protect lake trout spawning. The idea is to have the lake at a low level while lake trout are spawning then the lake usually refills in the late fall, and as long as the lake level does not drop more than 4 1/2 feet below the spawning elevation, all the eggs will be safe until they hatch in early spring. Prior to the licensing of the East Outlet Dam and before a gentlemen's agreement between the IPW and the past dam owners, it was possible to fully open the gates on the dam in the fall creating as much as a 7 foot drawdown. This would have caused lake trout eggs to become dewatered in the winter. Therefore, the current license sets a minimum lake elevation for the winter and notes that the power company cannot draw the lake down any more than 2 feet below the spawning lake elevation that occurred on October 10. However, this single date requirement has created the situation where the dam operators must dump large volumes of water in September and early October to achieve the water level goal on that day. This makes it tough to fish in the East Outlet at one of the best fishing times of the year. We are working with Brookfield to amend their license to enhance the fishing in the East Outlet while providing protection for our lake trout. IPW has recommended changing the October 10th deadline to a window of dates from October 10th to October 25th to more accurately reflect current conditions. IPW has also recommended increasing the allowable over-winter drawdown from 2 feet to 3 feet. This will protect the lake trout which are still spawning at depths in excess of 4 1/2 feet and allow the company to have a more gradual fall drawdown to reduce high flows in the East Outlet. Campowners will still have an opportunity to work on their docks in the fall as the lake drops in late October and November. It also provides additional storage in the spring which is very important to alleviate spring flooding downstream of Moosehead Lake along the Kennebec River. Brookfield has been a very responsible partner with IPW. It is clear they understand the recreational and economic importance of the sport fisheries for the communities around their projects and they have shown a commitment to improving the fishing and safety for all those that work and play within their project areas.

Memorial Day Parade in Dover-Foxcroft

DOVER-FOXCROFT - On Monday, May 26, at 10 a.m., the public is invited to remember those men and women who have served our country and given their lives for the freedoms we enjoy every day, and honor those among us who continue to serve.

The American Legion has planned the Parade & Memorial, which will begin on Summer Street at Dave's World, move to Monument Square for the memorial, then continue on the bridge with a wreath ceremony for those who passed away at sea.

The Foxcroft Academy Marching Band will take part in the parade, along with any local businesses, individuals or organizations who are asked to arrive 9-9:30 a.m.

Garland Memorial Day ceremony, May 26

GARLAND - This year's Memorial Day ceremony at the Garland Veteran's Memorial will take place on Monday, May 26 at 8 a.m. Last year's ceremony highlighted the Webber family of Garland for their participation in various branches of America's armed forces.

This year Tom Desjardin of Pittsfield, Civil War historian and author of several books including "Stand Firm Ye Boys from Maine" will speak about the role of Elisha Coan of the 20th Maine Regiment. Elisha Skinner Coan was born in Exeter in 1843, enlisted at the age of 19, and fought under Joshua Chamberlain. He was 20 years old and a member of the Color Guard when he took part in the famous battle of Little Round Top. Cpl Coan became Doctor Coan after the Civil War when he was graduated from Bowdoin medical school. He practiced medicine in Garland from 1875 to 1887. During that time he also represented Garland in the Maine Legislature and served on the school board.

Just before taps are played by Hannah Edgecomb of Mt. Desert, balloons will be passed out to the crowd and Marielle Edgecomb will read the poem "Freedom's Colors" and instruct everyone when to release the balloon color they are holding (red, white, or blue).

Wendell Giles, an Army veteran, will conduct the event, with other veterans participating in the ceremony. Families are encouraged to bring their children so that they can enjoy the colorful balloon release.

The Garland Veterans Memorial is at the entrance of Stone Field, across from the Garland Baptist Church.

Tick Awareness

Deer Tick Bites Prevention:

Check and re-check for ticks when you are in tick-infested areas.

1. When in deer tick habitat, walk in the center of the trail to avoid picking up ticks from grass and brush.
2. Wear light colored clothing so ticks will be more visible.
3. Create a barrier to ticks by tucking pants into socks or boots and tuck long sleeved shirt into pants.
4. After being outdoors in tick habitat, get out of your clothes immediately, do a complete body check, shower and vigorously towel dry. Wash your clothes immediately as to not spread any ticks around your living area.

American Legion Post #29 hosts Vietnam Recognition Dinner

DOVER-FOXCROFT - American Legion Post #29 of Dover-Foxcroft recently hosted a dinner honoring all veterans from Dover-Foxcroft who served in the armed forces during the Vietnam War ERA.

The Legion's special guest was retired Colonel Peter Ogden, Director of the Bureau of Veterans Services. Colonel Ogden presented a brief overview of the Vietnam War and the role that Maine veterans played in the conflict, he then thanked all the veterans in attendance for their service to their country during the war. Colonel Ogden presented each veteran who served their country from 1961-1975 with a certificate and a coin.

The highlight of the evening was the honoring of Gregory Sloat, Richard Dority, and Johnson Meade, the three Dover-Foxcroft residents who did not return home from the war.

Colonel Ogden presented a Gold Star to Clairice Call, the mother of Gregory Sloat and to Delmar Dority, the mother of Richard Dority. A Gold Star for Johnson Meade will be presented to his sister Ruth Sally, by the Legion at a later date.

Bart Merrill, the dinner organizer, thanked Colonel Ogden, the members of Post #29 and everyone else who made this event so successful. He then thanked all the veterans who attended, "we were honored to have two gold star mothers in attendance" he added.

Things we want you to know: IMPORTANT 911 EMERGENCY RESPONSE INFORMATION. The U.S. Cellular Home Phone Device ("Device") in conjunction with Home Phone Service ("Service") (together the "U.S. Cellular Home Phone") is a Commercial Mobile Radio Service and not a landline phone service. U.S. Cellular does not represent or warrant that the U.S. Cellular Home Phone is equivalent to landline phone service. 911 calls made using the U.S. Cellular Home Phone Service are routed using U.S. Cellular's automatic location technology and users should be prepared to provide their physical address to emergency responders. While the Device does contain a GPS chip, its connection may be limited due to the Device's location within the home. The GPS chip will work best if the Device is located near a window or other opening. A corded or cordless landline phone must be connected to the Device in order to use the U.S. Cellular Home Phone to operate. A corded or Cordless landline phone is not included. While the Device does have a backup battery, if the landline phone to which the Device is connected requires external electric power to operate, Service (including the ability to make and receive 911 calls) will not be available during a power outage. Neither U.S. Cellular nor any of its affiliates shall be liable for any service outage and/or inability to access emergency service personnel, nor shall U.S. Cellular or any of its affiliates be responsible for the acts or omissions of emergency. © 2014 U.S. Cellular.
