45th annual Dysart's Snowmobile Ride-In for Pine Tree Camp set for Feb. 3

NEWPORT - On Saturday, Feb. 3, spectators, riders, and snowmobilers will roll into Newport to mark the 45th annual Dysart's Snowmobile Ride-in and Q106.5 Egg Ride to benefit Pine Tree Camp.

"Pine Tree Camp is a very worthwhile cause and all the funds we raise go back to local people," said Tim Dysart, vice president of Dysart's.

One hundred percent of the proceeds from the Ride-in support Pine Tree Society's Campership Fund. Pine Tree Camp has never turned away a camper who cannot afford to pay tuition, and the funds raised at the Ride-in are a critical part of that.

"This is a cause that is important to many of us at Hannaford who have witnessed firsthand the positive impact Pine Tree Camp has," noted Jen Fortier, store manager of the Newport Hannaford. "Cherished memories are made at camp. Every person should have the opportunity to experience that."

Pine Tree Camp, located in Rome, opened its gates in 1945 as a summer camp for children with physical disabilities. Over the years, it has evolved into a place where children and adults with disabilities are able to participate in all the recreational activities for which Maine is known all year long.

The barrier-free setting, along with an amazing staff, ensure that activities like swimming, fishing, kayaking, hiking, boating and even camping in a tent under the stars are completely accessible to all.

Participating in activities that take people beyond their disability has a tremendous impact. It builds self-esteem and self-confidence. That experience, coupled with meeting friends who understand and experiencing the feeling of acceptance, is transformational.

The Q106.5 Egg Ride is off to a strong start with celebrity riders already being lined up.

Amy Judson of Carmel is one of those riders. She got involved with the Ride-in 15 years ago when her son Bradley first went to Pine Tree Camp.

"It means a lot to him and we really, truly believe in the spirit of Pine Tree Camp," she said. "The Ride-in is a community event and Newport and the surrounding area really embrace it."

Amy will be joined in the Egg Ride by Pine Tree Camp director, Dawn Willard-Robinson and Q106.5 personalities Scott Miller, Cindy Campbell, Paul Wolfe and Eric Owens.

The Q106.5 Egg Riders will continue the tradition of stuffing snow eggs down their snowmobile suits before the ride. Each egg represents a $50 pledge from Q106.5 listeners.

After an all-you-can-eat benefit breakfast starting at 7 a.m., the Egg Ride convoy will leave the Hungry Hollow 76ers Clubhouse in Lewistown at 9 a.m. and arrive at the Newport Armory at 11 a.m. where a public benefit luncheon sponsored by Hannaford Supermarkets will be served. The luncheon will feature pulled pork sandwiches and haddock chowder prepared by Pine Tree Camp's head chef, Greg Chesley.
